Consumer Notes:

Start the summer off right with ADV's latest excursion into the deep end - Excel Saga. Long awaited by fans (and for a reason), this hilarious series drags you into the world of the true otaku as it pokes fun at itself, its creators, and just about every other anime series. It's probably the only show that continuously kills the main character in the first episode! Then grab some Holy Water fast because the creators of Trigun are back and they've raised a whole new breed of vampire in Pioneer's Hellsing! You'll never feel safe again...

ANIMANIAC'S PICK(S) OF THE MONTH

Laugh and cry with the twists and turns of adolescent love when volume 2 of Gainax's hit high school comedy/drama His and Her Circumstances hits the shelves late this month. It's a combination of phenomenal storytelling and outstanding animation (what else do you expect from the people that brought you Evangelion?) will have you watching the show over and over. Then, the final season of hit comedy series Ranma ½ makes its debut this month as Ranma ½ Forever I: Initiation Nite hits the shelves. Do you have enough time to watch the whole thing? You would know if you had one of the two new Ranma ½ watches! Available in either Ranma / Blue or Genma / Black, it's definitely time you got one for yourself. Meanwhile, while you're waiting for the final release of Ranma ½, tap into a series that's already finished! Catch the release of the Slayers Enhanced DVD set covering the entire first series of the howling laughter of Lina Inverse scrambling, stumbling, and blasting her way to riches beyond her wildest fantasies!
